To whom it may concern,

Will Sames has worked with me and the group over the past year or so. He worked with me in my last Head Chef role as a Junior Sous/Sous level at the Bird Hotel and Homewood House and was a huge support for me when things were good and when things were tough.

Always keen to learn, flexible and he can really cook with confidence. A real foodie with a good palate and eye for detail, he has a sponge-like approach to work and usually only needs to be shown once before getting stuck in. He is well presented, speaks with charm and enthusiasm and is a pleasure to have in the kitchen.

I have since hung up my apron to become a Chef consultant here at Lime Recruit and without hesitation asked him to join and work with me. He has taken jobs as a relief chef that many would be intimidated by and has had only great feedback from some of our top clients. I'm very aware his future is destined for bigger things, and he will be a huge loss to my team due to his attitude and skill level. I could send him anywhere and I'd be comfortable knowing he'll do a good job. I would take him on again in a second.

I would happily recommend William to anyone considering employing him. You can get in touch with me on the above numbers/email 9-5 Monday to Friday. Please feel free to contact me for any more information regarding his reference.

Kind regards
